All of the guidelines listed above will also be upheld at end of the year formal and semi-formal.

ARTICLE IV. SELECTION

Section A. Recruitment

Section B. Selection

Section A. Recruitment

1. Recruitment for the North Texas Sweethearts shall be held at the beginning of the fall and spring semester; each recruitment season shall include a social event for each day of Recruitment week, in which potential Sweethearts will receive information about recruitment and the organization as a whole.
2. The number of prospective members shall be determined based upon the number of applicants and at the discretion of the selection committee.
3. To be considered for membership, all candidates must complete the following process:
 - a. The candidate must express interest in the organization through attendance at at least one recruitment event.
 - b. The candidate must complete the application in its entirety and turn it in at the designated date and time.
 - c. Candidates will be offered interviews based upon criteria set forth in Article III, Section B, Number 3.

Section B. Selection

1. New prospective members shall be named North Texas Sweeties and shall be chosen based on their scholastic achievement, campus community involvement, enthusiasm, and display of moral character.
2. Roll shall be taken of candidates at each recruitment function.
3. The method for choosing Prospective Members during the interview round of selection shall be as follows:
 - a. The Officer Board is to be the governing voice of North Texas Sweethearts during the interviews and shall consist of the incumbent Officer Board.

- b. The Officer Board will guide the candidate through a series of questions and tasks. After, the board shall give one of the following designations to the candidate, which they will keep secret until all candidates have had their interviews and discussion has commenced: “Yes”, “Maybe”, or “No.” Based upon the designation of the Officer Board, the candidate’s score from Officer Review, attendance at recruitment events, and the candidate’s application, Prospective Members will be chosen. A simple majority of the Officer Board must give a final “Yes” in order for a candidate to be selected.
4. At the first mandatory meeting of all Prospective Members, the officers will ensure that each Prospective Member is made clear of her requirements concerning activities, dues, and ethical behavior as stated in this document. Prospective Members must be told at this first meeting that once they pay any and all dues to Sweethearts, that fee is nonrefundable. If the candidate feels that she is not able to comply with the terms of the agreement, she may freely withdraw herself; she may not receive back any fees already paid to Sweethearts. Refunding of dues is set in Article IV, Section D, Number 2.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP

Section A: Membership Statement

Section B: General Membership

Section C: Active Members

Section D: Inactive Members

Section E: Academic Probation

Section F: Prospective Members

Section G: Misconduct of Members

Section H: Dismissal of Members

Section I: Alumnae Members

Section A: Membership Statement

1. Membership in this organization is limited to any student service fee paying student who is currently enrolled at the University of North Texas.
2. Membership is open to all students without regard to race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, political affiliation, disability, marital status, ancestry, genetic information, citizenship, or veteran status.

Section B: General Membership

1. The North Texas Sweethearts shall consist of Active and Prospective Members.
2. Active members must be enrolled as undergraduate or graduate students at the University of North Texas.
3. Prospective Members must be enrolled as undergraduate or graduate students at the University of North Texas.

4. North Texas Sweethearts shall consist of members of high moral character and scholastic achievement who maintain at least a 2.5 GPA and a commitment to serving the community.

Section C: Active Members

Each North Texas Sweetheart shall uphold the following responsibilities:

1. REQUIREMENTS

Each member is expected to go to each and every activity. Such activities include, but are not limited to weekly meetings, tap-in, service projects, athletic events, etc. However, active members are required to complete five service hearts (three of which must be obtained from an active service event), ten spirit hearts (including designated football and basketball games) and five social hearts in order to receive an invitation to the end of semester formal and/or cocktail. Throughout the semester, active members must obtain partial completion of their requirements prior to scheduled checkpoints during the semester that will be set by the Officer Board if necessary. If requirements are not met by the deadline, members will be required to make up the requirements the following semester, and they will be barred from social events designated by the President and the Officer Board.

Active Members are also required to attend all weekly meetings each semester. Each active member is allowed up to three absences per semester. After the third absence, future absences must be excused by the Officer Board. A missed event form is to be provided by the Officer Board and must be submitted to the Secretary for any and all absences, including but not limited to weekly meetings, service events, social events, and spirit events that the member has already committed to. The designated date for completion of requirements will be set by the Officer Board.

If an active member is unable to attend weekly meetings, due to class or a conflicting schedule, they must provide the officer board with a written note and proper documentation (ie: class schedule/work schedule) at the beginning of the semester in order to be exempt from this requirement. It is the officer board's discretion to allow the active member exemption from this requirement.

If an active member is unable to make a mandatory event the member will have to make up that event plus one extra point in whatever category the event was under (i.e. spirit, social, or service). Also if an active member signed up to attend an event and does not show up to said event the member will have to make up the point as well as one extra point in whatever category the event was under (i.e. spirit, social, or service).

2. ABSENCES

After any absences, it is the member's responsibility to find out what occurred at the missed event or meeting. It is also her responsibility, in the event of an absence, to become aware of the dates, times and locations of all activities.

3. DUES

Each member of the North Texas Sweethearts is required to pay her dues on or before a date designated by the Treasurer and must be current with her payment plan. The Treasurer shall create payment plan(s) to accommodate all active members. If a member's dues are a week late, and she has failed to discuss a payment plan with the Treasurer, she will be put on probation, if already on probation the member will be forced inactive. Inactivity for any reason throughout the semester does not exempt one from the semester's dues. All members are required to pay dues and are to be held to that commitment. Dues are nonrefundable and are to be paid in full by the designated Fall and Spring semester dates. Extenuating circumstances are to be discussed and arranged with the Treasurer by the second meeting of the year, if necessary.

Section D: Inactive Members

There are two methods in which a member may become inactive. She may choose, for personal reasons, to withdraw herself, or she might be asked by the Officer Board to go inactive on the basis of her earlier actions.

1. ELECTED INACTIVE

If a member is elected inactive, she has decided that she will be too busy that semester to live up to the expectations stated in this document. Rules applying to the elected inactive member are as follows:

- a. During the semester of inactivity, it is up to the Sweetheart to stay in contact with the organization via the officers in order to keep up with events. Her name will not be on the phone or mailing list, and the officers are not required to keep her abreast of the current events.
- b. The elected inactive member is welcome to come to meetings and tailgates; however, she is not able to attend North Texas Sweethearts social events, service events, sisterhood events, or recruitment.
- c. The elected inactive member must fill out an inactive form and turn it in to the secretary in order to be allowed to come back in the future if the elected inactive member chooses to do so.

2. FORCED INACTIVE

If a member has been asked by the Officer Board to go Inactive on the basis of her actions, she will be considered Forced Inactive.

- a. During the forced inactivity period, she will be dropped from the phone and email lists and will not be able to attend any Sweetheart functions.

3. REINSTATEMENT PROCESS

If an inactive member chooses to go active they must adhere to the reinstatement process

- a. The inactive member must email the secretary expressing her want to come back as an active member. In order to be reinstated as an active member, they must go through the steps below to be allowed back in the organization as an active member:

- i. Fill out the reinstatement form that the secretary sends you and send it back to the secretary
 - ii. Read and sign the The Purpose of The North Texas Sweethearts, The Mission Statement, and The Sweetheart Code
 - iii. Be approved by the officer board once the above items are completed
- b. If an inactive member was found in violation of any part of the Constitution of the North Texas Sweethearts while inactive, she will not be reinstated as an active member.

In order to return as an active member, the inactive member must contact the current secretary to go through the reinstatement process.

Section E: Academic Probation

If an Active member fails to meet the GPA requirements:

1. The member shall be placed on academic probation.
2. The member shall also be prohibited to attend date party's and socials in the current semester. (This doesn't include sisterhood events or family events.)
3. The member will be asked to complete two study hours per class that they are currently taking in the semester.
 - a. Each hour must be completed and signed off by an officer on the form provided.
4. If the Active member completes their study hours, then they will be able to attend formal at the end of the semester.
5. If an Active member is on academic probation for a second consecutive semester, the Active member will be forced inactive to focus on academics/studies.

Section F: Prospective Members

Each Prospective Member should uphold the following duties:

1. Each Prospective Member shall uphold the responsibilities of active members as stated in Article IV, Section B of this document.
2. DUES

Each Prospective Member shall pay semester dues equal to those of Active Members on or before a designated date. ~~All dues are non-refundable.~~

3. POINTS

Each Prospective Member is to be a North Texas Sweetie and accrue points (or hearts) at the discretion of the Officer Board: fifteen spirit hearts, five social hearts, and five service hearts (3 active service points) on or before a designated date in order to be invited into the North Texas Sweethearts as an Active Member. Points are awarded for participation in North Texas Sweetheart activities. Activities include, but are not limited to:

one-on-ones (Sweetie Dates), service projects, athletic events, intramural sports, etc. Each prospective member must obtain these points in order to receive an invitation to the end of semester formal and/or cocktail and to be invited to initiation. Failure to meet the requirements will result in the dismissal of the prospective member.

If a prospective member is unable to make a mandatory event the member will have to make up that event plus one extra point in whatever category the event was under (i.e. spirit, social, or service). Also if a prospective member signed up to attend an event and does not show up to said event the member will have to make up the point as well as one extra point in whatever category the event was under (i.e. spirit, social, or service).

Section G: Misconduct of Members

Each Member is required to uphold the values and beliefs of the North Texas Sweethearts. Active Members who fail to represent North Texas Sweethearts and its members in a positive manner during events hosted and sponsored by the North Texas Sweethearts and otherwise will be held responsible for her actions with accordance to the “Three-Strikes System,” described as follows, prospective members are to comply with the “Two-Strikes System”:

1. If an Active Member commits a first offense, the severity of which will be deemed by the Officer Board, said Active Member will receive a verbal and/or written warning. The Officer Board in its entirety will be notified of said Active Member and the offense she has committed against North Texas Sweethearts. The President and/or Human Resources Officer will address the said Active Member and the offense that has been committed against North Texas Sweethearts. A written record of the said Active Member and the details regarding the offense committed will be kept on file with the elected Human Resources Officer.
2. If an Active Member commits a second offense, the severity of which will be deemed by the Officer Board, said Active member will be required to attend an Officer Review. In the case of a second offense, the Active Member is required to discuss the offense committed against North Texas Sweethearts with the Officer Board. The Officer Board will ask said Active Member to provide an explanation for the actions committed against North Texas Sweethearts. The Officer Board will proceed to discuss and evaluate the offense in question. Further consequences regarding said Active Member will go into effect, as deemed by the Officer Board. A written record of said Active Member and the details regarding the second offense committed will accompany the written record of the first offense committed by the said Active Member and will be kept on file with both the President and Vice-President.
3. If an Active Member commits a third offense, the severity of which will be deemed by the Officer Board, said Active member will thereby be prohibited from attending future Social events where the said offense could reoccur, as deemed by the Officer Board. The events in question include but are not limited to mixers, end of the semester formal and/or cocktail. This probation will remain in effect for the remainder of the semester. At the conclusion of the semester in question, said Active Member’s privilege to attend all Social events will be reinstated. A written record of all misconduct committed by the said Active Member will remain on file with both the President and Human Resources Officer.

Special Circumstance: It is the responsibility of all North Texas Sweethearts to uphold the organization and themselves in a manor of class and respect. Improper or inexcusable conduct includes, but is not limited to the following:

1. Public Intoxication and/or Danger to themselves or others deemed by any officer can and will result in social probation or expulsion based on the severity of the crime or act committed. This is to be determined by the Officer Board upon a meeting with the member individually prior to the next scheduled meeting time.
2. A member who is incarcerated will have her membership rights and privileges suspended by forced inactivity for the period of her incarceration. Upon completion of her incarceration, the member may request reinstatement in writing to the current Officer Board for review.
3. Any form of assault or abuse of any form (physically, sexually, or verbally) will not be tolerated under any circumstances. This includes but is not limited to illegal or indecent activities towards or targeting any member.
4. Or any other act that breaks the North Texas Sweethearts code or the University of North Texas Code of Conduct.

Section H: Social Probation/Probation

The member will be placed on social probation if deemed necessary by the President and the Officer Board. The member will remain on social probation for at least one semester, after the semester the officer board will meet and decided if the member can be taken off social probation or if the member should be put on social probation for another semester. If the officer board deems necessary, the active member will be on social probation for another semester. After the second semester on social probation the officer board will meet and decide if the member can be taken off social probation or if they need to be expelled from the organization.

While on Social Probation/Probation the member cannot attend the following:

1. Any and all social events including: date party, formal, semi-formal, tailgates, & sisterhood events (including sweetie dates), as well as any event deemed not allowed by the Officer Board
2. Any and all service events
3. Any other event deemed not allowed by the Officer Board

While on Social Probation/Probation the member can attend the following:

1. The general North Texas Sweethearts meetings on Tuesday nights
2. Any spirit event hosted by the university
3. As well as any event deemed okay by the Officer Board

Section I: Dismissal of Members

When any serious infraction of the rules outlined in the document occurs, it is the responsibility of the Sweetheart President along with the Officer Board to review the circumstances and decide whether said infraction(s) merits/merit expulsion of any Prospective Member or Active Member. Infractions warranting dismissal include, but are not limited to:

1. Dishonesty in any form, including forgery of one-on-one or heart sheets, lying to an officer regarding any activity or misrepresentation on an application
2. Failure to pay dues in a timely fashion
3. Any behavior exhibited by the Prospective Member or Active Member that does not uphold the values and beliefs of the North Texas Sweethearts
4. Any behavior that does not align with the North Texas Sweethearts code and/or the University of North Texas Code of Conduct.
5. Failure to meet the North Texas Sweethearts requirements.
 - a. Failure to complete requirements will result in ineligibility for formal or equivalent activity. Also, the member will be on probation for the following semester and must make up hearts missed from the previous semester as well. If the member fails to do so they will be expelled from the North Texas Sweethearts. If unable to meet all requirements, the member must come to the Officer Board before hearts are due and explain why she is unable to meet all her requirements and the officer board will examine the situation and work on a compromise if the member has a legitimate reason for incompleteness of requirements.

At all times during the semester, any member of the Officer Board may propose the expulsion of a Prospective Member. The Expulsion Election will take place on the meeting prior to the first round of elections. The method for Prospective Member Expulsion by Officer Election will be as follows:

1. The Officer(s) proposing the expulsion of the Prospective Member shall prepare a brief explanation to the other officers of the reasons for potential expulsion of the Prospective Member, followed by an unlimited discussion by the Board.
2. The officers shall vote by secret ballot, only to be counted by the President and Vice President.
3. Officers must be present for the explanation and discussion to participate in the entire voting process.
4. The Prospective Member in question must receive a quorum of the vote in order to be expelled.
5. In the case of expulsion of the Prospective Member, the President, Vice President, and HR Chair must immediately schedule a debriefing meeting with the Prospective Member. During this meeting, the mentioned officers must inform the Prospective Member of the Officers' decision to expel the Prospective Member. The mentioned officers must also answer any questions from the Prospective Member regarding the expulsion, as well as explain the reasons for expulsion.
